I'm Anna, the storyteller behind Spin the Globe Project and Anna and Ryan. I'm a dreamer with an appetite for adventure, and a passion for social justice and sustainability. Hence why I backpacked around the globe solo while working in international development, traveled in a tiny home on wheels for 4 years, and now I'm based out of a small off-grid house with my partner and two rescue dogs.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER!

I partner with like-minded clients to expose my engaged followers to sustainable products, adventurous activities, and alternative lifestyles. I use multimedia storytelling to create inspiring narratives that capture my client's brand and message.

If your brand is socially and environmentally conscious and you'd like to collaborate, please send me a detailed email with your partnership proposal.
